13.2 Where the Supplier is subject to the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), and receives a request pursuant to the FOIA to disclose information relating to or received from CSM (including the terms of the Agreement), the Supplier will consult with CSM, and will use reasonable endeavours to identify and redact all commercially sensitive and other material exempt from disclosure, before releasing any such information.

13.3 Nothing in the Agreement shall create, or be deemed to create a partnership or the relationship of employer and employee between the parties and neither party shall have authority to bind the other in any way, except as set out in the Agreement.

13.4 The Supplier is an independent contractor. Supplier personnel are not CSM employees. The Supplier remains responsible as employer for the payment of all wages, taxes, national insurance and other costs relating to its employees and personnel.

13.5 The Agreement, or any provision thereof, may be amended or modified only with the mutual consent of an authorised representative of the parties as set out in writing, and expressly stating the parties' intent to amend the Agreement. CSM shall have the right to amend these Standard Terms at any time and without notice and will inform the Supplier in writing when such a change has been made.

13.6 CSM shall have the right, upon reasonable notice, to permit an auditor (meaning CSM, an Underlying Client and/or any auditor appointed to act on behalf of CSM or an Underlying Client), at Supplier's cost, to conduct audits, as frequently as necessary during and after the Term, of Supplier's operations, facilities, documents, procedures, records and/or systems or the storage or processing of any associated data (including security testing and penetration testing where deemed necessary in the reasonable opinion of CSM or an Underlying Client). CSM shall give reasonable notice to Supplier of each audit except in what is reasonably deemed an emergency or crisis situation or where such notice would reasonably render the audit ineffective. CSM may activate such an audit right for purposes including, but not limited to: auditing the Supplier's accounts to review and verify the Supplier's compliance with the provisions of the Agreement and verify that the charges (and any proposed or actual variations to them in accordance with these standard terms) have been accurately and properly calculated and applied by the Supplier.

Any notice shall be duly served: (i) on delivery if delivered by hand; (ii) 48 hours after sending if sent by first class post or recorded delivery; or (iii) on sending if sent by email (provided that a copy is also sent by post in accordance with (ii) above), provided that in each case: (a) the notice is sent to the address of the addressee in the Agreement (or such other address as the addressee may from time to time have notified for the purpose of this clause); and (b) in relation to notices served on CSM, a copy of such notice is also sent by email to: esm.legal@esm.com.

13.9 Subject to clause 13.11, a person who is not a party to the Agreement shall have no rights pursuant to the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any of the Standard Terms or the Agreement.

- 13.10 The Supplier may not assign, sub-license, sub-contract or otherwise transfer the Agreement or any benefits or obligations therein except as is permitted under clause 5.10 and shall remain liable at all times for any sub-contractor or other person permitted under clause 5.10. CSM may at any time assign, transfer, charge, sub-contract or deal in any other manner with any or all of its rights or obligations under the Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, CSM may assign the Agreement to its Underlying Client at any time without approval from any other person or entity, including the Supplier.
- 13.11 CSM's Underlying Client has the right, without obtaining any consents or approvals from the Supplier or any third party, to assume this Agreement for any reason. The Supplier agrees to accept CSM's Underlying Client's performance of this Agreement and provide all benefits of this Agreement to CSM's Underlying Client, following the assumption of this Agreement.
- 13.12 Any phrase in this Agreement introduced by the term "include", "including", "in particular" or similar expression shall be construed as illustrative and shall not limit the sense of the words preceding that term.
- 13.13 The Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Supplier and CSM in relation to the provision of goods/supply of Services, including, without limitation, any terms or conditions which the Supplier purports to apply under (or which accompany or are referred to in) any purchase order, confirmation of order, specification or other document.
- 13.14 The Agreement and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection therewith (including any non-contractual claim or dispute) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales.
- 13.15 The parties shall attempt to resolve any question, dispute or difference as to any matter or thing of whatever nature arising under or in connection with the Agreement (a "Dispute") through negotiations between senior executives of the parties who shall have authority to settle the same. If the Dispute is not resolved by negotiation within thirty (30) days of receipt of a written 'request to negotiate', the Dispute shall be finally resolved by arbitration under the rules of the London Court of International Arbitration ("LCIA") and such rules are deemed to be incorporated by reference into this clause. It is agreed that:
- (a) The tribunal shall consist of one arbitrator.
 - (b) In default of the parties' agreement as to the arbitrator, the appointing authority shall be the LCIA.

- 1.2 The parties acknowledge and agree that in order to provide the Services, Supplier may process personal data. The type of personal data that the Supplier may be required to process under this Agreement includes names, email addresses and other contact information collected by or on behalf of CSM and in relation to the provision of the services.
- 1.3 CSM is instructing the Supplier on behalf of a third-party controller and is therefore a processor on behalf of that controller, and Supplier is the sub-processor to CSM. To the extent that CSM is not acting under the instructions of a third-party controller, then CSM shall be the controller and Supplier the processor. Each party acknowledges and agrees that each party has respective rights and obligations under applicable Data Protection Legislation. Supplier shall, at its own expense (except where otherwise expressly stated in this clause) and without prejudice to its other rights or obligations, in respect of its processing of such personal data:
- (a) process the data only to the extent, and in such a manner, as is necessary for the purposes of this Agreement and in accordance with CSM's written instructions from time to time and Supplier shall not process or permit the processing of the data for any other purpose. If Supplier is ever unsure as to the parameters of the instructions issued by CSM and/or believes that CSM's instructions may conflict with the requirements of Data Protection Legislation or other applicable laws, Supplier shall immediately notify CSM for clarification and where requested provide reasonable details in support of any assertion that CSM's instructions may be unlawful;
 - (b) only make copies of the data to the extent reasonably necessary (which may include back-up, mirroring (and similar availability enhancement techniques), security, disaster recovery and/or testing of the data);
 - (c) not extract, re-utilise, use, exploit, redistribute, re-disseminate, copy or store the Data other than as permitted under the terms of this Agreement;
 - (d) comply with its obligations under Data Protection Legislation, and the provisions of CSM's IT and data security policies as notified to Supplier from time to time;
 - (e) only permit access to data to those Supplier personnel who require such access in order to carry out their roles in the performance of Supplier's obligations under this Agreement and ensure the reliability of all personnel and Sub Processors (as defined below) who have access to the data and shall in particular ensure that any person authorised to process data in connection with this Agreement is subject to a duty of confidentiality that at a minimum is equal to the duty of confidentiality imposed on Supplier under this Agreement;
 - (f) not do anything or omit to do anything that may put CSM or any member of CSM's group in breach of its obligations under Data Protection Legislation and take such steps as CSM may reasonably request from time to time to enable CSM to comply with Data Protection Legislation;
 - (g) having regard to the state of technological development and the cost of implementing any measures, take appropriate technical and organisational measures against the unauthorised or unlawful processing of personal data and against the accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to personal data, to ensure a level of security appropriate to: a) the harm that might result from such unauthorised or unlawful processing or accidental loss, destruction or damage of the personal data; and b) the nature of the personal data to be protected. Such measures shall be of at least the minimum standard required by Data Protection Legislation and be of a standard no less than the standards compliant with good industry practice for the protection of personal data;
 - (h) promptly and without undue delay (and in any event within 24 hours) notify CSM in writing of each personal data breach of which it becomes aware. Supplier shall ensure that the initial notification comprises the information required under Article 33(3) of the UK GDPR;
 - (i) assist CSM by appropriate technical and organisational measures in responding to, and complying with, data subject requests;

- (j) provide CSM with full co-operation and assistance in relation to CSM's obligations and rights under Data Protection Legislation including providing CSM and Regulators (as applicable) with all information and assistance necessary to investigate security breaches carry out privacy impact assessments or otherwise to assess or demonstrate compliance by the parties with Data Protection Legislation;
- (k) at its own expense, without undue delay notify CSM in writing, and provide such co-operation, assistance and information as CSM may reasonably require if Supplier:
 - (i) receives any complaint, notice or communication which relates directly or indirectly to the processing of the personal data under this Agreement or to either party's or any member of CSM's group compliance with Data Protection Legislation;
 - (ii) becomes aware of any Security Breach;
- (l) at the request of CSM (and at the Supplier's expense), provide to CSM such reasonable assistance as is contemplated by Article 28(3)(e) and (f) of the UK GDPR;
- (m) keep at its normal place of business a written record of data processing carried out in the course of the Services and of its compliance with its obligations set out in this Agreement ("Records");
- (n) at Supplier's expense, provide CSM with all information reasonably required by CSM to enable CSM to verify Supplier's compliance with this Agreement and permit CSM, its third-party representatives or a Regulator or its third party representatives, on reasonable notice during normal business hours, but without notice in case of any reasonably suspected breach of this clause by Supplier, access to inspect, and take copies of, the Records and any other information held at Supplier's and/or Sub Processors' premises or on Supplier's and/or Sub Processors' systems relating to this Agreement, for the purpose of auditing Supplier's compliance with its obligations under this clause. Supplier shall give all necessary assistance to the conduct of such audits;
- (o) not engage any processor to process data (or otherwise sub-contract or outsource the processing of any data to a third party) without the prior written consent of CSM acting in its sole discretion. Where CSM authorises Supplier to appoint a third party to process the data (a "Sub Processor"), such authorisation is conditional on Supplier:
 - (i) entering into a written contract with the Sub Processor that:
 - (1) is on terms that the same as those set out in this clause;
 - (2) provides sufficient guarantees to implement appropriate technical and organisation measures in compliance with the Data Protection Legislation; and
 - (3) terminates automatically on termination or expiry of this Agreement for any reason; and
 - (ii) remaining liable for all acts or omissions of the Sub Processors as if they were acts or omissions of Supplier.
- (p) return or destroy (as directed in writing by CSM) all data it has in its possession and delete existing copies unless applicable law requires storage of the personal data. If CSM elects for destruction rather than return of the data, Supplier shall as soon as reasonably practicable ensure that all data is destroyed and deleted from Supplier systems and provide written confirmation of compliance with this clause within 14 days of request;
- (q) not transfer the personal data outside the European Economic Area without the prior written consent of CSM, which can be withheld at the sole discretion of CSM, and subject to any additional CSM requirements (which may include entering into or procuring that the relevant Sub Processor enter into Standard Contractual Clauses or Approved UK Addendum (as appropriate) ("Model Clauses"))..

1.4 For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Agreement shall relieve Supplier of its responsibilities and liabilities under Data Protection Legislation.

1.5 Supplier shall indemnify CSM on demand against all claims, liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other professional costs and expenses) suffered or incurred by CSM arising out of the Supplier's breach of its obligations in this clause 1 ("Claims"). Each party acknowledges that Claims include any claim or action brought by a data subject arising from Supplier's breach of its obligations in this clause.
